

Orbitwrap Pallet Wrapping Machine

1. Check that the power to the machine is turned on and that the speed setting is set at the lowest speed.
2. Check surroundings to ensure that there are no obstructions to the turning pad.
3. Safely lower the pallet from the forklift onto the turning pad and park the forklift in a safe location with tynes down.
4. Extend the plastic wrap and tie on the pallet.
5. Set the speed to the required speed level.
6. Ensure that other workers are clear of the machine and are aware that you are about to operate the pallet wrapper.
7. Press the start button and stand safely away from the machine.
8. Monitor the machine process for safe operation.
9. Engage safety switch should an incident or a safety issue occur.
10. Isolate the machine for the safety of all staff.
11. Report the incident to management immediately.
12. Operate only when machine has been cleared for use.